Attractors and Finite-dimensional Reduction for Non-autonomous Systems
Sergey Zelik

We will discuss the classical and recent results on the attractor theory of the non-autonomous dynamical systems generated by dissipative partial differential equations. In particular, then approaches related with the so-called uniform, pull-back and exponential attractors will be considered.