Topological Transformation Groups

Semra Pamuk
Koc University

In this talk, I will give historical background to transformation groups and their fundamental importance in mathematics. I will give some examples in the subject and describe connections to other areas of algebraic and geometric topology. I will also mention some still open problems in the area.