

Monodromies of real Lefschetz fibrations and strongly real elements in the mapping class groups of torus

Nermin Salepci Ferret
Koc University
Mathematics Department

First, I will explain the observation that monodromies of real Lefschetz fibrations decompose into a product of two orientation reversing involutions. Then, I will give a classification of classes in the mapping class group of torus which admit such a decomposition.