

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Conference will be held at Koç University Campus located inside a forest to the north of the European side of Istanbul with a magnificent view of the Black Sea. The Campus Buildings provide an ideal conference site with wireless internet connection available at all locations on the campus and the library will give full support during the conference. Accommodation will be provided on-campus at the Henry Ford Guesthouse and A-class dormitories. Special reduced rates apply to all conference participants. Conditions of payment are to be found on the registration form. The standard registration fee includes breakfast and lunch at Divan Cafeteria and tea-coffee services during the lecture breaks. The Conference Banquet on Tuesday evening and the Excursion to Istanbul to be followed by a Boat Trip and Dinner along the Bosphorus on Wednesday are also covered. Graduate students may register at reduced rates. The title and abstracts of the talks should be submitted by e.mail (branes@ku.edu.tr) no later than 31 May 2007, prepared in LaTeX including the title, names of the authors with full addresses and the abstract.
